Outline your relevant raiding experience, including the guilds you were in previously and why you left them. *

Started playing in BC around patch 2.3 and did not start raiding competitively until the start of WotLK. With the exception of Firelands I cleared all raids with hard modes/raid achievements from WotLK until the end of Cataclysm. Raided with Rivals on Korgath for Naxx/Ulduar, Gentlemens Club on Korgath during ToTC, and Amateurs on Korgath during ICC and Cataclysm. I did not raid during MOP.

In WOD I joined <Business Class> on Sargeras and have raided there from Highmaul until the end of the Nighthold tier clearing all Mythic raids apart from M Blackhand.

I joined <Hardcoded Asian Subs> Sargeras (now <Keep Yourself Safe> on Sargeras) at the beginning of Tomb of Sargeras to raid more competitively. Their goal was to finish the tier in the top 20-25 US but progression on Mistress Sasszine stalled and they decided to disband.

I was invited to join <AK> on Cenarius (now AK on Hyjal) after my previous guild mentioned above broke up. I progressed with AK on Maiden of Vigilance, Fallen Avatar and P2 Kil'jaeden. On Mythic Kil'jaeden they decided to server/faction transfer and I chose to stay behind and take a break.

What resources do you use to keep up with your class? *

I keep up with theorycrafters on discord and forums. I use warcraft logs to analyze my play and compare with other players to see what I can do to improve myself. I spend time on the PTR and Beta testings to get comfortable with changes to my class as well as practice future bosses on raid testings. I use simulationcraft for simming various gear, talents, environments and get a deeper understanding of how my stat weights fluctuate under different talents or fights. I do my own testing with various talent builds and trinkets/tier sets/etc to be able to adapt to any kind of encounters.

Why do you want to join Potent? What sets you apart from other players? *

Feel free to brag as much as you want. If you're good at something, tell us.

I enjoy competitive progression raiding. I am constantly trying to improve myself. I would like to raid with like-minded people where I can push myself and others in the raid. I can maintain perfect attendance, come to raids fully prepared with runes/pots/flasks/food for every pull as well as knowledge of the encounters and my job as a melee dps/warrior. I can comfortably play all specs of my class if I'm needed to switch between Arms and Fury or offtank as Prot. I try to be up to date on my class' theorycrafting and optimize my rotation and gear properly. I am usually doing M+ dungeons outside of raid time. I try to participate in any optional guild activities.
